THE OFFICIAL BULLETIN OF
Y's MEN'S CLUB,Y's MENETTE'S

ANNA NAGAR

ANCHOR OFF FOR MAIDEN VOYAGE OF 1998-99

July brings in the era of "Rava Dosai" compared to "Idli Sambar" of last year.

The new broom always sweeps well, until it gets worn out towards the end of the Y's year. Now with the availability of the state-of-the-art plastic brooms, the wear will be minimal.

A young septuagenarian with a failing memory has been forced to don the Captain's cap to keep the Y's crack floating. The erstwhile Captain steered the ship through turbulent water towards the end and managed to bring it safe to the port.

Your new Captain experienced a little "starting trouble" in the absence of the Chief Engineer, who was on leave for a short period, but since returned to start the engine. The sailing is expected to be smooth, with the forecast of good clear weather ahead. The bar and restaurant are well stocked (at a meagre 2500 bucks only) to last the entire voyage. Those who are yet to pay the voyage fee are requested to contact the Financial Director (during office hours) immediately without any further delay or excuses. Defaulters on board are liable to be off-loaded, the easiest method being to be thrown into the sea.

Sun bathing, overcrowding and loose talks on the deck are strictly forbidden during this voyage.

I wish you, and you wish me a Bon Voyage.
