FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

You might have been eagerly awaiting to read the first person narration regarding the railway accident to Charminar Express near Vijayawada a couple of months ago in which Ysm Māthew T.Oommen and family were involved. This article is now planned to appear in the December issue.

The spot fining for traffic offences, especially on Anna Salai, by traffic cops has caught a few Y's men unawares, who had to cough out varying amounts to the state exchequer. One thing is sure that these Y's men have become Y'ser, and will now 'stick to their lines', irrespective of 'Salai'. Individual names are not divulged, and these Y's men are assured that confidentiality is still being maintained, until 'fines' are discussed after a few fellowsips at the Y's meeting.
