A sixth grade class is doing some spelling drills. The teacher asks Tommy if he can spell "before". He stands up and says, "Before, B-E-P-H-O-R." The teacher says "No, that's wrong. Can anyone else spell before?" Another little boy stands up and says, Before, 'B-E-F-O-O-R'. Again the teacher says, "No, that's wrong". The teachers asks, "Little Johnny, can you spell before?" Little Johnny stands up and says, "Before, B-E-F-O-R-E". "Excellent Johnny, now can you use it in a sentence?" Little Johnny says "That's easy. Two plus two be fore."

A terrible diet and room with no ventilation are being blamed for the death of a man who was killed by his own gas. There was no mark on his body but an autopsy showed large amounts of methane gas in his system. His dies had consisted primarily of beans and cabbage (and a couple of other things). It was just the right combination of foods. It appears that the man dies in his sleep from breathing the poisonous cloud that was hanging over his bed. Had he been outside or had his windows been opened, it wouldn't have been fatal, but the san was shut up in his near air-tight bedroom. According to the article, "He was a big man with a large capacity of creating 'this deadly gas'." Three of the rescuers got sick and one was hospitalized.

Overheard in the Mall: "I want to divorce my husband because he has lousy memory!"

"Why would you want to divorce him for that?"

"Every time he gets around a young woman, he keeps forgetting that he's married!"

A dog ran into butcher shop and grabbed a roast off the counter. Fortunately, the butcher recognized the dog as belonging to a neighbour of his. The neighbour happened to be a lawyer. Incensed at the theft, the butcher called up his neighbour and said "Hey, if you dog stole a roast from my butcher shop, would you be liable for the cost of the meat?"

The lawyer replied, "Of course! How much was the roast?"

The butcher replied, "Rs.25/-"

A few days later the butcher received a cheque in the mail for Rs.25/-. Attached to it was an invoice that read: Legal Consultation Service: Rs.500/-.

The secret of a happy marriage remains a secret.

THE OFFICIAL BULLETIN OF
Y's MEN's CLUB OF ANNA NAGAR

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

The dawn of October 99 gave the results of the Lok Sabha Elections and the BJP along with its allies came successful and formed the Ministry at the Centre. Let us look forward for a clean and purposeful Government.

Our city experienced really heavy showers during the first week of October. The thunderstorm which lashed the city on Oct. 4th & 5th dislocated traffic due to floods and uprooted trees. Anna Nagar was not spared and a tall tree, right in front of the residence of Ysm. Vergis Oommen, had fallen across the Second Avenue crushing a Maruti 800 parked on the road side. The Rain God disappeared later and started playing hide and seek with very scanty rain during the rest of the period in October. But other parts of Tamil Nadu, especially the southern districts got heavy rains which filled up most of reservoirs and was a boon to the farmers.

This month was a "month of rejoice' for all members of our Club as two of our Y's Lings, Y'slings – Jayant and Sangeetha got married during the month. Details are given under "news" in this bulletin.

Your Editor was having a holiday in the Nilgiris for most part of October but returned to the City after cutting short the holidays in order to attend certain unavoidable social obligations.
